Alone, each of us is an instrument playing a single melody. Together, we have combined to make a harmonic symphony of lasting memories that we shall cherish forever. The upcoming pages exhibit the happy times as well as the hard times, but most of all, they portray who we really are. Look back at this book and remember the music and dreams that we, the class of 1988, were able to make come true.

studd!; Hungry Jen?; Bottom Right: "What's up guys?"

 Top Right: Melvin Ewing and Chris Donaldson
 chow down in the cafe; Middle Left: Rob Rigger and Brad Sampson are late for class again; Middle Right: Alicia, Corina and Kalliopi eagerly await graduation; Bottom: The Sky's the limit!

JUNIOR PROM

"ONLY YOU"

A Tribute to Mr. Warren

Dear Mr. Warren,

We made it! Though we don't know what the future holds, we do know that we owe you much gratitude for your part in our success.

You have spent hours going over our schedules, guiding us into the courses that would best prepare us to reach our goals. You've believed in us and that belief has inspired a spark of confidence that has made us want to live up to our highest potential.

So now we say thank you and farewell. Farewell not only because we are moving on, but also because you are moving into retirement.

You have served us well. You have touched and guided many lives and perhaps even made history.

We wish you well. May your days be full of golf, sunshine, love, ice cream, happiness, and fond memories ... especially of the class of '88.

Love,

The Seniors

Audio-Visual

Thanks to the audio-visual staff at B.H.S., classes are made more enjoyable and educational for students.

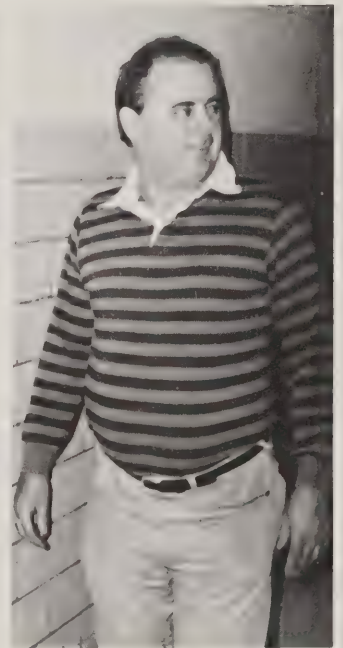

Cafeteria

Our cafeteria staff rises early each morning to prepare nutritious meals for students. Seniors have appreciated their hard work and dedication.

Nurses

Our nurses display their concern and devotion every day as they help keep each student healthy and happy.

Custodians

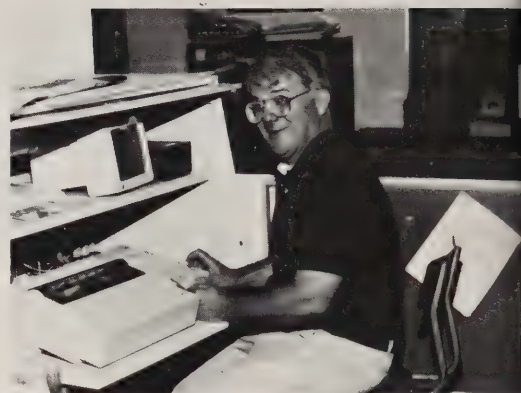

The custodians at B.H.S. work long hours to keep our school clean and smooth-running.

The Library

AFTER NOTES

Dear Seniors,

Attention Speech Team: Important meeting, Wednesday, April 13, 1999. All members must attend. Plans for trip to Europe will be discussed.

Mr. O'Toole

There is only one success . . . To be able to live your life in your own way." May the members of the class of 1988 enjoy success.

Good Luck — Accept the challenges of the future. — A.C.E.S. staff

Success and Happiness are out there for you to earn. Good luck graduates!

— W.A.V.E. 760 Workshop

Allow yourself the time to see the beauty in all things and in all ways.

— Mr. Bolton

Break your path into the new world!" We need all the "movers and shakers" we can get.

— Mrs. Regan

In the final analysis, we are all alone. Become a person whose company you enjoy. XO.

— Ms. Bendiksen

Oops, that was a freudian slip!" Strive for the best, but hang loose and enjoy life. Good Luck! Love,

J. Lawson

To the class of '88: The world is yours — go for it! Love,

Mrs. LaRoche

Dear Class of 1988:

You entered B.H.S. four years ago as frightened, immature freshmen. Today you stand tall as leaders ready to emerge into society as mature young men and women. I congratulate you as individuals and as a class for your accomplishments academically and in extra-curricular activities. On behalf of the entire staff at Barnstable High School, I wish you good luck and happiness and commend you for a job well done. Sincerely,

Roland W. Hicks

Dear Concert Band Seniors:

Band has been a big part of your lives for many years. My wish for you is to continue to play and enjoy long into your adult life. Also, thank you for your years of performing for me and for being so faithful. You ARE the music makers who can make others' dreams come true.

— Love, U.T.

"We do not rest satisfied with the present. We anticipate the future as too slow in coming, as if in order to hasten its course; or we recall the past, to stop its too rapid flight . . . For the present is generally painful to us . . . We scarcely ever think of the present . . . The present is never our end. The past and the present are our means, the future alone is our end. So we never live, but we hope to live; and as we are always preparing to be happy, it is inevitable we should never be so." — Pascal.

In other words, guys, ENJOY LIFE NOW! — Mr. Carlon

"She is little, but she is fierce " " Gives light in darkness, comfort in despair!"

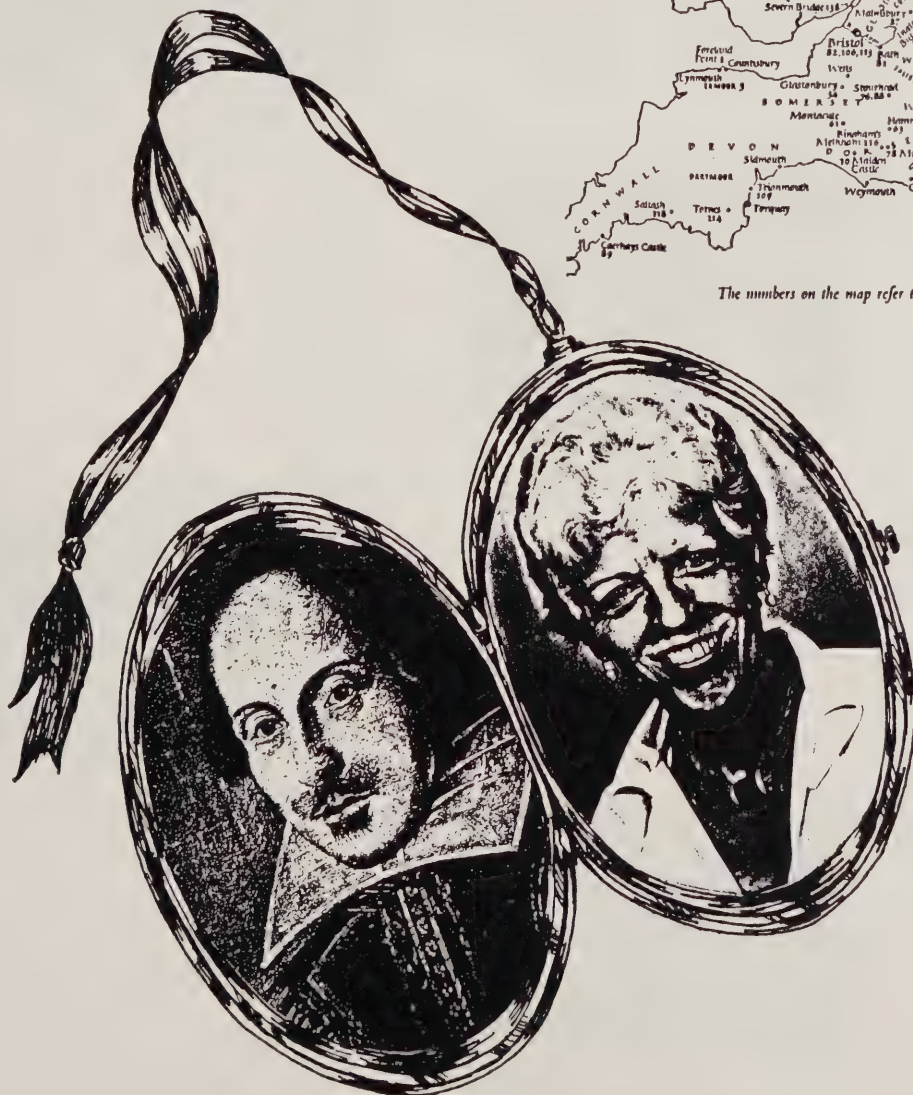

This year, the English wing was a little quieter than in years before. One of Barnstable's most vibrant teachers, Mrs. Alice Williams, retired after a long and successful teaching career.

Her students were always dear to her heart, and the minds that she stimulated throughout the years could never be counted. She taught several courses, but her favorite, by far, was Shakespeare. Her romance with "Bill", as she liked to call him, was very evident in her lessons, during which she would often stand on desktops to show all of the emotion of the part which she was reading. Her lively teaching style and individual attention to her students made her unique and well-loved.

Having told only a few people, Mrs. Williams retired and is now planning to move to England, where she feels her real home is. This, we believe is the way Bill would've liked it. And so, we dedicate this page to Alice Williams, a true dreamer of dreams. We will miss her.

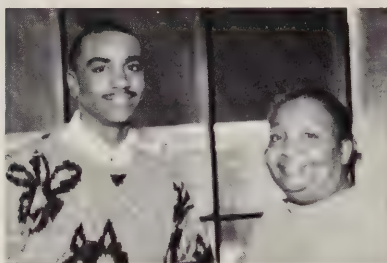

The numbers on the map refer to the Plates and corresponding Notes

"Speak, hands, for me! Et tu, Brute? Then fall, Caesar!" "Parting is such sweet sorrow."

"... This above all: to thine own self be true, And it must follow ... Thou canst not be false to any man ..."

A.F.S. Club

Dear Ones,

The end of the year comes so quickly! I wish to commend all of you who have worked so hard with A.F.S. Remember that it doesn't end here. This is just the beginning.

I'm afraid that because of your awareness of international cultures and issues, (far more than most other students) that you have a responsibility to become a true "world-citizen." Take heed to the needs of our environment. (Our world has been aptly dubbed "Spaceship Earth.") Realize that although other nations may feel differently than we do, they have a perfect and legitimate right to their feelings. Remember that YOU are the future of the world. You will be the voice of the politics and reality of what ever is to be. Nuclear War or not? Influence that decision!

To Ia, Viviane, and Andy — thank you so much for sharing with us. I cannot begin to tell you how much you enriched our lives. (BRAZILIAN BLACK BEANS FOREVER!) To Barbara, Dineen, Becky and Jane: you were the shapers of the year. Congratulations!

There is no A.F.S. without all of you. The success of the club and the organization depends upon you. You are truly very special people. We are deeply proud of you. "Go forth and slay dragons."

Art Club

Dear Art Club members:

The Art Club is very fortunate to have a fine team of officers. With Tanya Alves as the President, the club was centered around many activities such as the art appreciation field trip to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Gardner Museum. Then, Oliver Oberdorf lent his strength and leadership as Vice President in the art works at the Lewis Bay Head Injury Center and the Centerville Nursing Home. Kalli Macheras and Susie Fell supported all of the members in their offices of Treasurer and Secretary by encouraging all members to positive action as they created the murals of leaders. Then, all of the club participated in the Spring Art Workshop on Nantucket. Here, in the Art Club, some dreams are realized and other dreams have just begun.

Barnstable Youth Advisory Council

The BYAC is a community service group under the guidance of the selectmen and other adults in town. The groups originally comprised of just a dozen members, has grown this year to include well over sixty members. Throughout the year, the group organizes many service programs such as Toys for Tots, and a Job Mart. One of the best known activities in May is 'Get High On Life Week', a series of events celebrating the great aspects of living a drug-free life. The group's dedication and willingness to work will continue to service our community.

Peer Leadership

Homeroom Reps

Homeroom representatives play a very important part in keeping communication flowing from the class officers to the student body. From collecting class dues to reporting on activities such as dances, car washes, dog shows, and other fund raisers, the homeroom reps provide a valuable service for their class.

Dear Photo Club members,

For the past two years, photo club has been working hard to recruit dedicated, new members. We have succeeded in this goal by receiving "quality" people. Commitment, hard work, and many photos later have made each member both skilled and talented. With continued good progress and better communication, Photo Club will achieve, as will our seniors! Good luck B.C., W.T., B.L., R.K., J.L., and C.M.

Back Row: Bonnie Leeman, Beth O'Toole, Kelly Fenney, Miss McNeil. Front Row: Brenda Leeman, Cindy McCarthy, Barbara Carlson, Wendy Thomas.

The Imani Club

Dear Imani Club Members:

During the last three years, I have watched you grow and mature into fine young responsible students. I want to convey to you the following advice: Your future success depends on your ability to work and become productive. Educate yourselves to the best of your ability. Support your family and community: In these trying times the family has undergone too many trials and ordeals. Remember no man is an island, no man stands alone. Take these three things and go out and have a productive successful career. Until the next time.

Kaleidoscope

Kaleidoscope, the BHS magazine of the arts, is in its fourth year of publication. The magazine offers a place for students to express their creativity. The poems, stories, photography, and artwork are collected and published each spring. Sue Sweeney and David Pollock have been outstanding co-editors, coordinating the staff members and running the production of the magazine. We have enjoyed working with such an enthusiastic staff who worked diligently to produce an award-winning magazine. To the Seniors — many thanks and keep on writing!

Channel 22 is the television broadcast station of the Barnstable Public Schools. High school students produce a daily news program along with many additional features such as: sports, music, drama, Topics and Faces of Cape Cod, and soon to be announced music videos.

The intention of the school system in using Channel 22 is twofold. First, to be informative to all of our viewing audience about the happenings in our schools and second, to provide an outlet for those students interested in the communications field.

We are extremely proud to talk about former students now working and providing their skills from Channel 58 locally to Disney nationally. And to our seniors, the best of luck in your every endeavor.

Mr. Loughnane

Student Council

It has been my privilege this year working with the Student Council. The Concern and Energy they have exhibited has been exemplary. The student body should be very proud of this group. They have represented us all very well.

National Honor Society

Barnstable High School is very fortunate to have such a committed and community-minded National Honor Society. Through their group and individual efforts, they have attained and exceeded their goals and expectations. Excellence, competency, and enthusiasm are all an integral part of their efforts and achievements.

Thanks to all of you for my great introduction to Barnstable High School. You have made your school proud. I wish you all the health, happiness and success that life has to offer.

Dear Class Members of 1988,

It is evident that one major problem affecting many high school students is drinking and driving. Although there have been several unfortunate accidents involving students in our high school, the problem is continuous. Due to these mishaps, an organized group of students is now involved in S.A.D.D. (Student Against Driving Drunk).

The main purposes of S.A.D.D. are to educate students about the dangers of driving drunk and to help friends and peers prevent accidents on the roads. Students encourage others' awareness in a few different ways.

Each year during open house, a display of posters is arranged in such a way that everyone feels almost magnetized to the exhibit. This display is effective to the public in that it reveals actual pictures of victims of drunk driving accidents who have survived. These pictures are usually accompanied by an influential motto which is surely remembered by all who read it. Creating this display greatly contributes to "Awareness Week". S.A.D.D. members show that they have concern for others' lives and respect for life itself.

Students who are willing to warn others about S.A.D.D. are offered the sale of t-shirts. These shirts usually present the emblem of S.A.D.D. and it's well-known slogan, "Friends don't let friends drive drunk."

Another way S.A.D.D. warns others of it's purposes is by performing puppet shows before a group of elementary school students. The shows help younger children understand the consequences of drinking and driving.

How do S.A.D.D. members support their group? With the guidance of the advisor, Mrs. Jones, the president, Randy Friedline, and the vice-president, Christine Murphy, as well as the help of all other S.A.D.D. members, the group earns it's funds by selling refreshments during performances presented by the Barnstable High School Drama Club. S.A.D.D. members have found this fund-raiser a success, for it provides stability for the group to maintain it's functions.

Without the cooperation, responsibility, and support of all S.A.D.D. members, the group would not be where it is today.

I wish every graduating student of Barnstable High School a safe and fulfilling future.

Best Wishes To All!

School Store

Dear School Store Staff,

I have really enjoyed working with you, the "Numero Uno" staff. Store members are not just dreamers, we are do-ers. We fulfill a service to all students and staff; we also work together to get the job done. The store's success is a direct reflection of everyone involved. We will miss our seniors, and know that they will prosper in their prospective careers.

To celebrate your exploits in a manner apropos to the theme of the 1988 Barnacle, I have asked everyone's favorite disc jockey, Kasey Kasem, to dedicate a special top ten to you. I'll turn over this letter to Kasey, trusting that he will have found songs that fit you like Calvin Kleins fit Brooke Shields.

"Well, thanks, Coach. You're a generous, wonderful guy to let 'ol Kase do his thing. Are you ready, then, speech teamers? Okay, here they are: the all-time speech team Top Ten."

"Number 10 is dedicated to your ringlet-tressed assistant coach, Miss Mary Cafazzo. Made famous by the immortal Ray Charles, it's "Georgia On My Mind"."

"Number 9 goes out to four determined young ladies — Mandy Clough, Becky Lowell, Shannon Smith and Kristin Hand — a special tune from the early 60's, "Where the Boys Are"."

"In the eighth spot on our chart, a little number for the titanic team of Tara Baukus and Kevin McNulty, "The Two of Us"."

"For the dedicated and authoritative junior captains of the squad, John Rohrbach and Scott McMahon, our Number 7 song, from our semi-classical collection, "March of the Wooden Soldiers"."

"Holding down the sixth spot in the countdown is a favorite of those scintillating storytellers, Jen Lucas, Deanna Guire and JoMarie Stefanski — Billy J. Kramer's "Little Children"."

"The fifth song on our all-time list is a special delivery to dulcet-toned Jen Woodbury called "Video Killed the Radio Star"."

"Adam Tratt and Christine Murphy, resident rebels, our fourth song's for you. It's a nostalgic treat from the halcyon days of the 60's. From Bob Dylan, "The Times They Are A 'Changin'"."

"Caroline Gordon, this one's for you. Our number three tune is from a singer you love in memory of Districts, Holy Cross and States. "Weekend in New England," written and sung by Barry Manilow."

"The penultimate spot on our super-special list is reserved for senior captain Brian Sherman and his partner in oratory, Kelly Kavanaugh. From Carole King, it's "Where You Lead, I Will Follow"."

"And that leads us to the top spot, to a song dedicated to the entire team. In honor of the thousands of miles they log with their favorite bus driver, Cathy Pina, it's Willie Nelson and "On the Road Again"."

"Oops, I almost forgot the special dedication to your coach, Mr. O'Toole. To the man who claims that "Motown Is My Town," The Four Tops and their great hit, "I Can't Help Myself"."

"That about wraps it up for me. But before I go, remember, keep the stars in your eyes and start reaching for your feet. Or is it, keep your eyes on your feet and . . .? Oh well, who knows what it means anyway?"

The 1987-88 INSIGHT staff worked together as a team — a noisy, rambunctious, yet always devoted team.

First, a tip of the hat to this year's editors-in-chief: Jeff Clyburn, Joan Colwell, Christine Murphy, and Brad Sampson. Their hard-work, enthusiasm, and good humor set the tone for the rest of the staff. A blending of the right-wing males (Brad and Jeff) with definitely left-of-center ladies (Joan and Christine), the editors-in-chief compliments each other with their fresh ideas and spirit.

Barbara Carlson, Scott Eck, Jennifer Fantaroni, and Joanne Pratt have been INSIGHT editors for two years running. Scott's manic wit added immeasurably to our meetings and newspaper. Without Joanne, Jen and Barb's considerable writing and design talent, we would've been lost.

Beth Fulcher, Eric Hauck, and Mandi McClelland were the backbone of our sports staff. Together, they gave INSIGHT many clear, direct, and informative sports stories. Be nice to all three — one day they might be able to get you into the Fenway pressbox.

Jessica Borden, Cherri Casey, Sue duMont, and Gregg Walker provided the newspaper with countless entertaining and in-depth feature stories. Look to see Gregg reviewing films someday for the NEW YORKER and Cherri flaunting her fool-proof backstage press.

Mar Baldasaro, Amy Dufault, Michelle Eaton, Tina Gorgone, Debbie Kelley, Wendy Thomas, and Garet Waters round out this year's talented INSIGHT staff. Without Mat's attention to detail, Debbie, Michelle, and Tina's boundless enthusiasm, or Garet, Amy, and Wendy's wackiness and spirit, 1987-88 would have been a bore.

Instead it was an opportunity to work with many devoted, fun, intelligent, and special students. Thanks, guys!

Dear staff,

Thank you for all your dedication. The class of '88 should be proud of this beautiful tribute to their high school years, all of you worked hard to make this yearbook outstanding. Special thanks must go to Wendy Thomas, your editor-in-chief, who kept her cheerful good humor no matter how dismal the situation. Recognition must also be given to David, Felice, Cuong, Annie, Paige, and Rob for their contribution to organizing the project.

Over your senior year you have learned many things, but I have been most impressed by your understanding and assistance to each other. Whenever someone was having difficulty, the rest of you were there to support them and to help get things done. Some days were a quandary of quad-paks, croppers, and attached copy forms but other days were a combination of laughter and deadline parties.

In the end you have created the most important memento of your high school years. Congratulations!

The Proud 1987 Red Raiders

The 1987 Barnstable High School Red Raiders surpassed all expectations and succeeded in an outstanding 8-1-1 football season. Through the great determination of the fantastic seniors, the Raiders succeeded in beating New Bedford and pulling out an exciting comeback to tie Dartmouth. The Seniors, led by Captain Rob Childs, had "character, leadership, and a great belief in each other," according to proud Coach Titus. Rob Childs commented, "We proved that through true teamwork we could overcome any obstacles." Coach Titus' final thoughts were a credit to his team. "You were proof that there is no limit to what a team can accomplish if the individuals on the team aren't concerned with who gets the credit."

The 1987 Field Hockey team, is comprised of thirteen seniors; Jen Barrett, Corina Davis, Lisa Roderick, Julie Lortie, Deidre McGillen, Judy Everett, Tracy Baldner, Mandi McClelland, Krista Chamberlain, Jen Joyal, Michelle Clough, and co-captains Alicia Mathewson and Kathy Farley. They finished 7-6-4 in a tough southeastern-Mass conference. The girls finished fifth out of nine Div. 1 teams.

There wasn't a lot of skill on the team, but they had guts, determination and drive, and that's what made them what they were. They didn't always win, but when they played a game, they gave their opponents a run for the money.

I'm going to miss the seniors like crazy.

I've been with these 13 girls for three years. They did a great job for us and I was so glad we had girls who stuck it out and were as friendly and fun as they were.

I wish them all the best of luck. I think they'll all do great.

The Boys' Cross Country team had a difficult season in the fall of '87 with a 1-5 record. Overall the Division 1 Teams were tough — Brockton and Cambridge among the best. But the Barnstable boys stayed in the running throughout the season, losing no one to illness or injury. The team was young with only two seniors, Mike Yoo and Joe Sears, and there were two coaches during the season, Coach Davis and Coach Ribaga. Despite these shortcomings, there were some memorable moments during the season.

One of the best meets was Catholic Memorial where Joe Sears placed 4th in the three mile race. The State Coaches Meet was also exciting. Mike Yoo placed second on our team. The race was run in the snow across a golf course. "If you didn't get out in front, you were caught,"

Joe reminisced.

Mike's best personal performance was against Coyle where he took 4th place. Joe's was at the Catholic Memorial competition. The entire season was a tribute to the loyalty and dedication of a team who supported each other under difficult circumstances, keeping the traditions of Barnstable Cross Country alive.

The Red Raider's season started off slowly but finished extremely well. The first game was tricky. Yet the girls came back to win 2-1. The biggest games of the season were against Bishop Connolly. We had never beaten them away. Beating them this year determined our final standings so it was doubly exciting. We ended up our season co-champions with them.

A big factor this season was injuries. Rachael Wirtanen had continuous injuries but came back in full stride with some timely hits to help crown the season.

Unfortunately most of this year's varsity team is graduating this year. The Raiders are losing co-captains, Beth Fulcher and Felice Cohen, as well as Raechel Wirtanen, Janice Macomber, Kim Lima, and Colleen Walsh.

The highlights of the season were the two wins over Bishop Connolly although the whole season was a bonus because we finished on top.

This year's varsity basketball team has set its goals high. They're hoping to be league champions in 1988. Coach McDowell describes his senior tri-captains, Phil Ierardi, Dennis Fisher, and Paul Morrissey, as strong, competitive starters and good leaders. He attributes the strength of the team to the experience of the seniors, who also include Wally Sullivan, David Dalrymple and Bob DiCarlo.

One highlight of this season was when Dennis Fisher exceeded 1,000 points in the February 2nd game against Falmouth. That evening, he received a standing ovation from both Barnstable and Falmouth fans.

The success of this year's team very much hinges on the team work. They work well together and seem to anticipate one another's moves. Their confidence, dedication, and skill shines through as they play. With the addition of two junior players, Jeremy Gobeil and Bret Fournier, Coach McDowell states, "We believe we're capable of beating any team who steps out onto the court with us."

The 1987-88 Barnstable girls basketball team was a motley crew. Led by the five crazy seniors, they landed a fun successful season. Through Janice and Felice's shooting, Jen Joyal's rebounding, Jan Mahannah's fast break lay-up and Alicia's ball control they strived for victory. Many young players were moved up to help out and the senior's poise brought victory. The spirit at practice, on the bus, and at the games was usually a crazy one, but also included "intensity" (as Coach Dunnett would say) they pulled together to gain some big wins. The good times will never be forgotten!

The 1987 Winter Track team, according to Coach Rick Linehan, looks "promising." He feels the small team will be more successful in state level meets rather than dual meets, due to a "depth of individual talent." His goals for the team this season are "to be competitive, to unveil new talent, and to perfect the veterans." Linehan calls the seniors "the nucleus of the team." For the boys, veteran distance runners Joe Sears and Mike Yoo, as well as first-timers Ed Dowling (shot put) and William Toomey (mid-distance) will be key individuals. Of the senior girls, Linehan says, "they are experienced and should lead us to winning ways." He sees individual talent in sprinters Ramona Rosary and Georgia Bey, hurdlers Kirsten Smith and Karen Crocker, and distance runners Cindy Mc-Carthy, Brenda Bishop and Brenda L.

Coach "Linny" is also pleased with his assistant coaches, Don Smith and Heather Babineau. He feels they are very supportive and help him to keep track of everything.

Fans were calling it a "transition year" because of the youth and inexperience of the team. Everyone was wonderfully surprised, though, as the Barnstable Team kept notching up the wins to end up second in the league with a chance at the State Championship. According to Coach Boger, the ten juniors on the team who helped to make this season so memorable are "great kids, both on the field and in the classroom." The feeling is mutual, because as outfielder Lorenzo Harris says, "Every decision that Mr. Boger makes betters the team in some way. He makes it fun, too." This truly was a "fun" season, seeing as they beat their biggest rival, Falmouth, twice and also downed the number one team in the league, Attleboro. This was all without one of their best pitchers, who remained injured throughout the season. Whitney Floren, one of the most promising players on the team, was correct when he commented that the whole season was a "surprise". Obviously, the team has great hopes for the future; if they can do this well with all the odds against them, imagine what they can do next year with a healthy, experienced team.

Last year's softball success was largely due to the junior's performance. In 1987, Janice Macomber, Felice "Weecee" Cohen, Beth Fulcher and Jennifer Mahanna were selected to various all-star teams.

Now, as seniors, we're dependent upon the leadership and excellence from the returning senior all-stars, and Tanya Alves, Kim Rector, Colleen Walsh, Susie Fell, Jill Kolva, and Kristina Mikkonen to give Barnstable High School our first league championship. For us to become league champions, our best team effort will be required. Good luck, team, in your 1988 season.

Make it a successful one.

The 1987 team had several goals. One was to improve on last year's record, which we did with 14 wins and 6 losses. We wanted to make the State Tournament and we also accomplished that. Another goal was to beat D-Y, and we were the only team to do it! In fact, our 237 score of that match was the lowest recorded by any team in SMC all year. Key players were

Kip Lewis, Phil Zarum, Mike Berube, and Brad Sampson who will return their senior year for what should be another great season in 1988. Coach Cliggot

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Girls' Tennis team has been very successful during the past four years, and the three seniors, Krista Chamberlain, Lesa Breen, and Sarah Nadolny have all done extremely well. Krista and Lesa have both played since their freshman year and have ranked highly on the tennis team since the beginning. Krista Chamberlain, who is now ranked #1 in the singles category, has won all but four matches in the past three years.

The Girls' Tennis team is one to be proud of. Last year was the best yet, when they reached the semi-finals of the State Tournament. Although Coach Miles seems to have some question this year of what the team's outcome will be, there is much promise with his three senior players.

The year 1987 was characterized by many as a good, but not great, season for the boys tennis team. They ended the year with a 13-3 record, qualifying for the state tournament.

The year had many ups and downs. Dave Prothero, the team's number two singles player, said that the highlight of his year was beating arch-rival Falmouth. Other big victories were over Bishop Connolly (who hadn't lost once before playing Barnstable), and Oliver-Ames in the play-offs. However, they were ousted from the play-offs by Hingham for the third straight year. Another low point in the season came in a loss to Bishop Feehan, which snapped a 56 regular season match winning streak.

In many ways it was a building year. "We had a lot of freshmen and sophomore players" said Jon Piantes. Geoff Smith added, "we figured out who will be who next year." It was also the first year for the head-coach Art Jerome.

GIRLS' SPRING TRACK

The Team: Back, (L to R): A. Bacon, K. Smith, K. Paquette, B. Lowell, G. Fellows, B. Bishop, A. Best, A. Mathewson, J. Everett. Middle, (L to R): K. Crocker, G. Bey, D. Steenstra, T. Baldner, K. Hand, C. Fortman, D. McGillen, G. Bryant, E. Franey, K. Cadeiro. Front, (L to R): K. Donovan, J. Barret, M. McClelland, M. Curley, C. Fournier, A. Pritchett, M. Wool, C. McCarthy, B. Leeman, J. Joyal, J. Lortie, and C. Lopes.

Spring of one's senior year is a joyous and reflective time. It is very special. As a student and athlete, it marks the end of a most important four-year experience and a time to look forward and move on. As a teacher or coach, however, things are a bit different. We have a senior year every year. Student athletes come and go, yet we remain. We are seemingly caught in time.

As this group of senior girls moves on, they will have a special and unique place in my heart. Most of them have been on the team for four years. They've had their up's and down's, to be sure, and they have learned valuable lessons from one another. So, Karen, Brenda, Kirsten, Julie, Deirdre, Mandi, Georgia, Mary, Tracy, Judy, Jen, Cindy, Brenda L., Dawn, Kristen, Jen B., and Alicia — Godspeed. I will miss you.

BOYS' SPRING TRACK

The Boys Spring Track Team

In Boys' Spring Track, strong performances were exhibited this year from seniors, Mike Yoo, Joe Sears, and Mike Pacheco. Although the team was winless in 1987, it looks forward to the 1988 season. Mike Yoo described his best meet against New Bedford, where he took third place in the two mile race. He also felt that next season should be more promising. Although Joe Sears, star runner, was plagued by injuries his junior year, he said his best performance was in the Falmouth Invitational, where the four man relay team took first place. Joe also looks forward to running next spring. Mike Pacheco ran the 400m and 200m relay, and also threw the javelin. Coach Davis did a fine job his first year, and all agree that things should be even better next year.

Mike Pacheco carries the baton across the finish line.

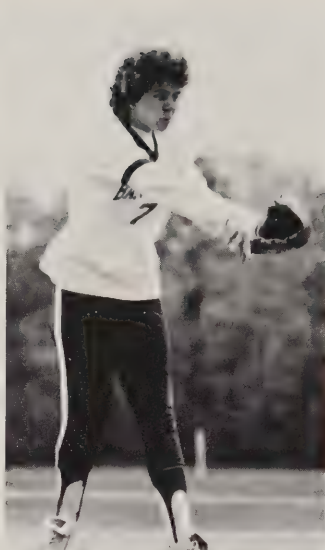

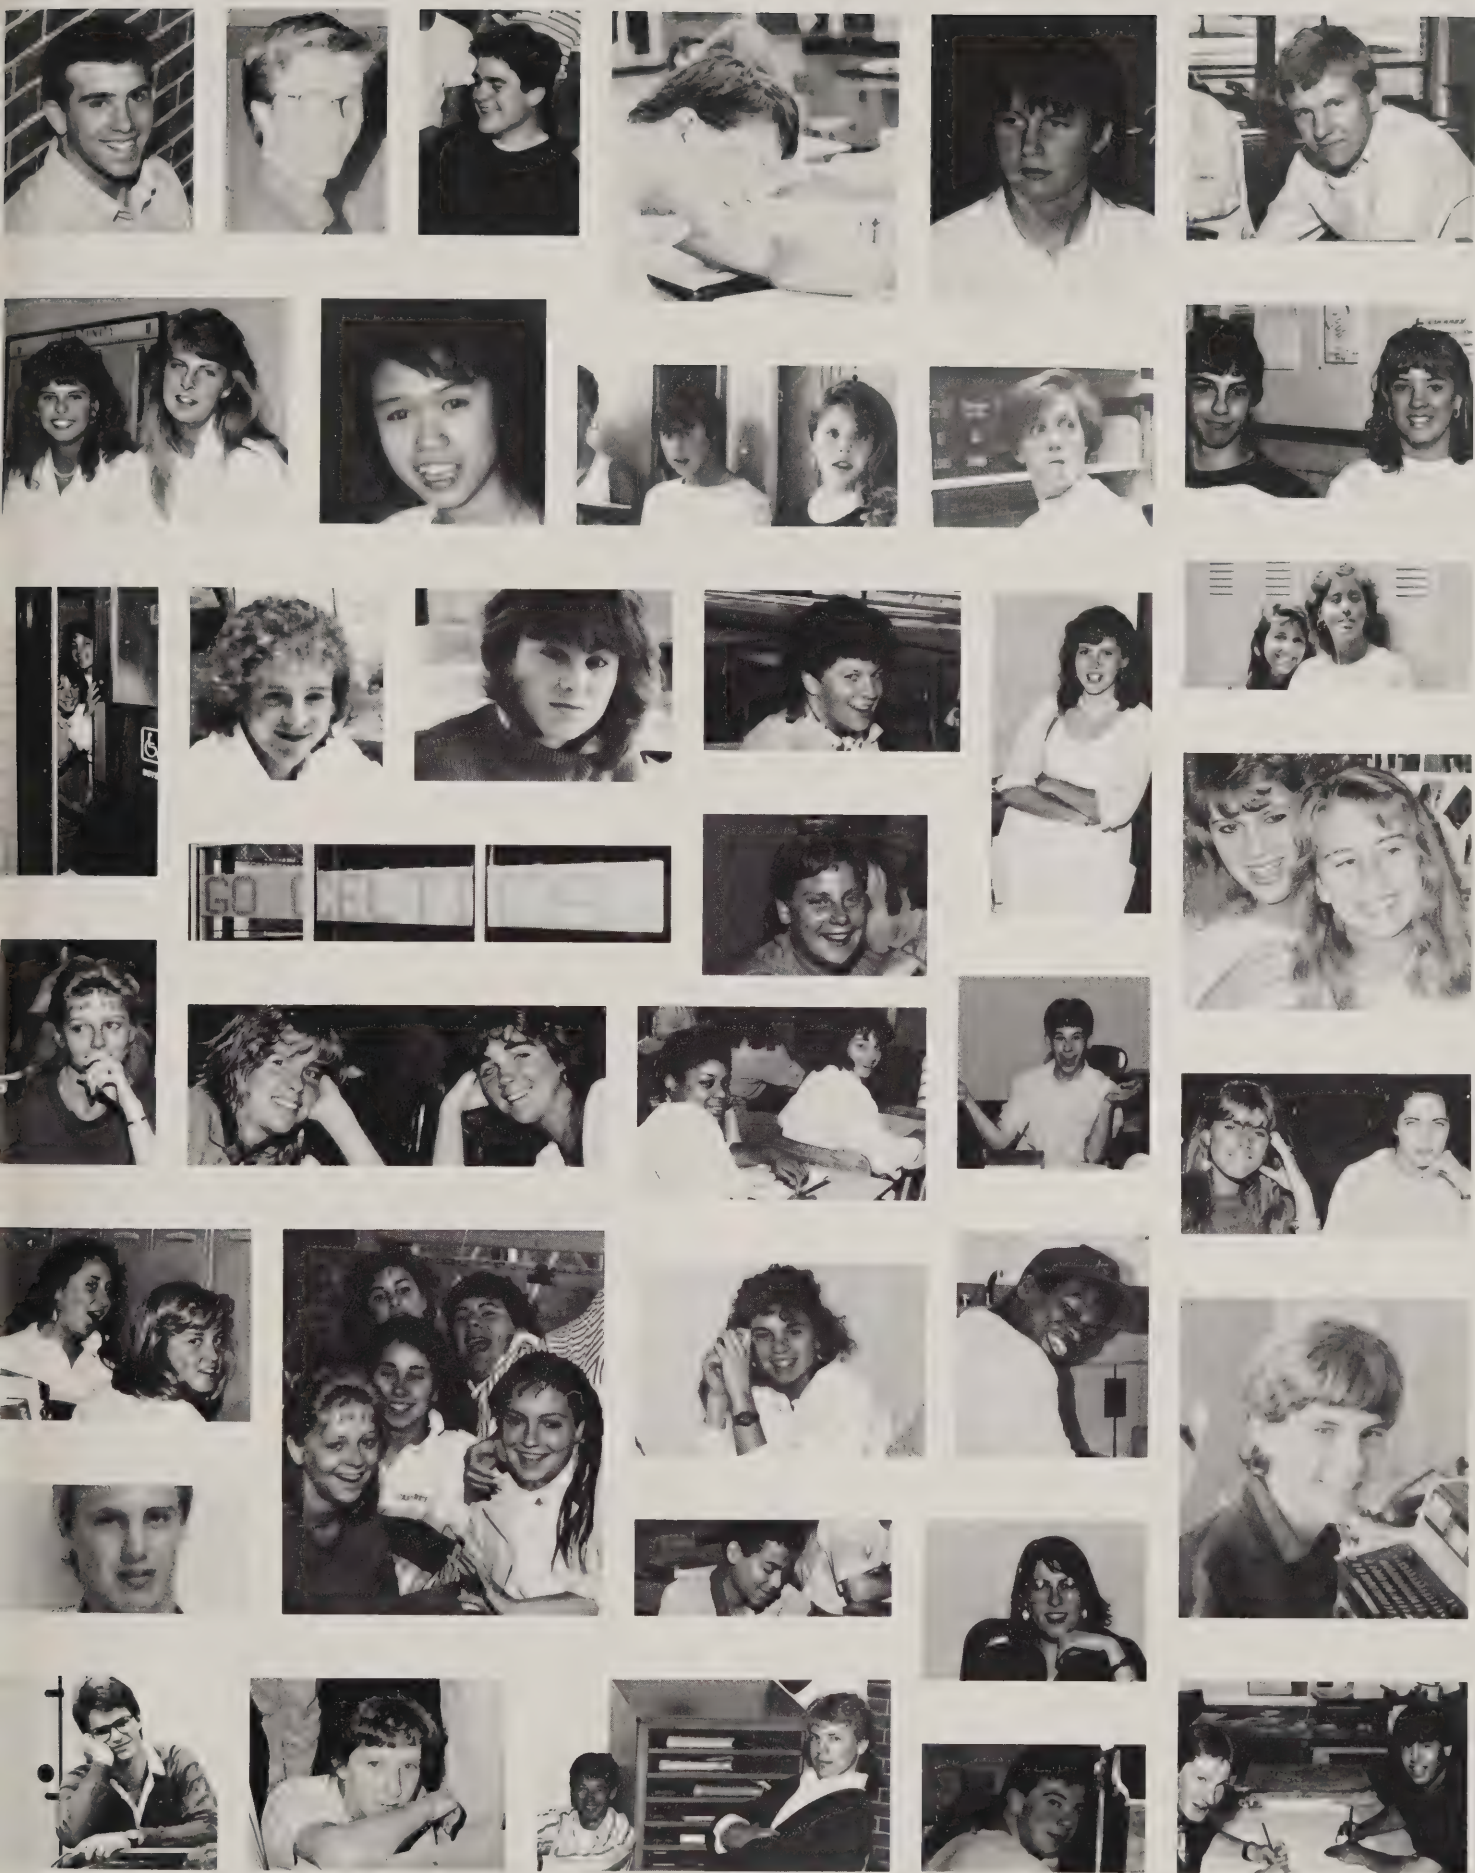

Kristina Mikkonen takes time out to offer support to her teammates.

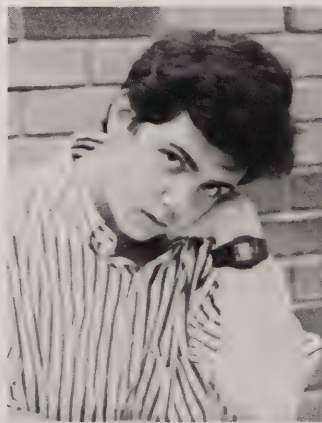

"The Season's Over."

*Look to this day! For it is life,
 The very life of life.
 In its brief course lie all the varieties
 And realities of your existence.
 The bliss of growth,
 The glory of action,
 The splendor of beauty,
 For yesterday is but a dream,
 And tomorrow is only a vision;
 But today well lived
 Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness,
 And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
 Look well, therefore, to this day!*

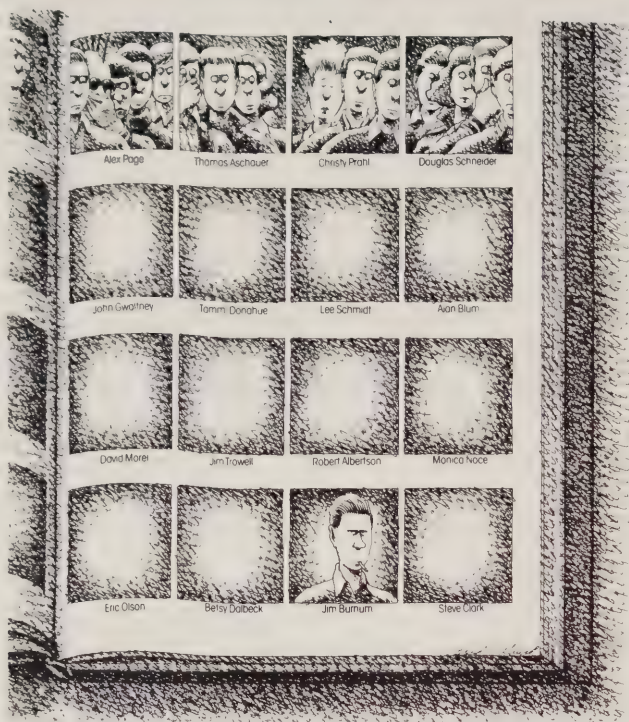

*Time it was,
 And what a time it was,
 It was . . .
 A time of innocence,
 A time of confidences.
 Long ago . . . it must be . . .
 I have a photograph.
 Preserve your memories;
 They're all that's left you.*

Together we entered Barnstable with dreams of becoming seniors and graduating. Now, as we see our aspirations coming to pass, we feel relieved and anxious about what the future may hold. As a single note at the beginning of a symphony, we will leave Barnstable to begin our own melody. The songs of the past and the dreams of the future keep us moving towards our various goals.

Good luck in the future, and may all your dreams come true!

Thanks!
